- 2 A person under the age of 18 is not allowed to sell alcoholic drinks or serve behind a bar, and it is illegal for an adult to be drunk whilst supervising or working a bar
- 3 No alcohol is to be sold to anyone who appears to be drunk or who is buying for someone who appears to be drunk (slurred speech, clumsy movement and loud or aggressive behaviour are signs of drunkenness)

- 9 Smoking is not allowed and it is the bar supervisor's responsibility to ensure this law is obeyed.

These responsibilities apply where sale and/or supply is carried out under the authority of a Temporary Event Notice, as well as sales under a Premises Licence. Note that the maximum penalty for breaking the law in these respects is a fine of £20,000 or 6 months in jail. Those attempting to purchase alcohol for anyone under 18, buying for someone under 18 or buying for someone who is or appears to be drunk are also guilty of an offence.
